

Scholarship Opportunity!!!

Draper's Youth Theater Ambassador Scholarship Program

The Draper Arts Council (DAC) is deeply committed to nurturing our talented youth in Draper. We seek to strengthen our relationship with area high schools and cross-promote our production and performance opportunities. To that end, we have established a Youth Theater Ambassador Scholarship Program that grants a scholarship, upon successful completion of the program, to the individual who is selected. We welcome all applications and offer the following summary of the application requirements and procedures. Please apply and become Draper's Youth Theater Ambassador!

Highlights

- Open to all High School students who are Draper City residents
- One-time $500 to $750 scholarship depending on performance when you exit the program
- Scholarship money to be deposited in your name in a Utah 529 college savings account
- Attend and actively participate in DAC monthly meetings from January through August 2023
- Volunteer and recruit other students/friends to volunteer for a variety of duties in preparation for and at performances and the theater workshop
- Advertise, promote, and actively support DAC performance opportunities in Draper high schools and other youth organizations
- Give advice and insight on future shows and DAC activities.
- Performance will be evaluated against measures and expectations
- Complete an on-line application by October 8.
- A limited number of applicants will be interviewed and considered
